

Call for Part-time Lecturer and Thesis Advisor Applications IE New York College

At IE New York College (IENYC), New York City’s College for the Common Good, we believe innovative business leaders are the vanguard of positive social change. Our Master of Science degrees explore social impact and sustainability, alongside opportunities to conduct applied research in business and fashion. Offered through day and evening courses on campus or online, our master’s programs focus on driving sustainability-related innovation to accelerate systemic change.

Calling for Professionals at the Cutting Edge of Practice

We are looking for business and policy professionals committed to social innovation and sustainability to join IENYC’s New York-based, practitioner and activist professorate pool to bring the cutting edge of practice into the classroom.

Academics and Applied Research

IENYC delivers unique Master of Science degrees which can be completed in one year full-time or two-years part-time at our campus in SoHo in Manhattan or remotely. Our sustainable impact focus is inspired by leading-edge systems thinking grounded in the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

The IENYC M.S. Curriculum Structure

As IENYC grows, we are looking to qualify additional part-time lecturers for all courses in the Sustainable Fashion and Business for Social Impact and Sustainability M.S. degrees (see table).

Shared Curriculum	Sustainable Fashion	Business for Social Impact & Sustainability
Values-Based Leadership for an Interconnected World	Fashion as Culture / Culture as Fashion	Money as a Force for Social Good
Navigating Global Change: Business Practices for The Common Good	Material Considerations in the Fashion System	Impact through Social Entrepreneurship
Business Strategy for the Common Good	Fashion Proseminar	Economics Concepts and Policy
Introduction to Quantitative Analysis	Sustainable Fashion Strategy	The Chief Sustainability Officer

Sustainability Policy & Metrics	The System of Fashion	Programming, Big Data, and AI for Sustainable Finance
	Social Considerations in the Fashion System	Marketing Strategy for Sustainability
		Capstone: Integrative Business Challenge

Qualifications

Instructors should have a master’s or doctorate degree and relevant practice or research experience. Significant prior professional experience presenting your ideas and leading discussion groups is required; prior university teaching experience and prior experience teaching asynchronously online are helpful though not required.

Compensation

Master’s degree	Per 3-credit course	$7,500
Doctoral degree	Per 3-credit course	$10,000
Master’s degree	Per 1.5-credit course	$3,750
Doctoral degree	Per 1.5-credit course	$5,000

To apply, please send a cover letter, addressed to Faculty Chair Dmitri Shuster at Dmitri.shuster@iency.ie.edu. Please address which course(s) you are interested in teaching and what prepares you to do so successfully at IENYC.

IENYC is an Equal Opportunity Employer. The College is committed to providing an inclusive and respectful environment for all members of its community.